Swing dance is a partner dance that originated in the early 1900s. It is characterized by its fast tempo, improvisational nature, and close-hold position. Hip-hop is a street dance that originated in the 1970s. It is characterized by its funky beats, loose and fluid movements, and emphasis on rhythm and groove.

Swing Nation combines the best of both worlds to create a dance style that is both energetic and expressive. Swing Nation dancers use the fast tempo and improvisational nature of swing dance to create a foundation for their choreography. They then add the funky beats and loose movements of hip-hop to create a unique and dynamic dance style.
