First published in 1968, The Greatest Salesman in the World is a timeless classic that has inspired millions of people around the world. The book tells the story of Hafid, a young camel boy who dreams of becoming the greatest salesman in the world. Through the guidance of his wise mentor, the Eighth Scroll, Hafid learns the 10 ancient scrolls of success, which include principles such as:

- The Law of the Seed: Plant seeds of success in your mind and they will grow.
- The Law of the Morning Miracle: Wake up early and spend the first 30 minutes of your day in silence, reading, and meditation.
- The Law of the Will: Develop a strong will and never give up on your dreams.
- The Law of the Greatness: Believe in yourself and your ability to achieve great things.
- The Law of Personal Magnetism: Develop a magnetic personality that will attract people to you.

- The Law of the Service: Help others and you will be rewarded in return.
- The Law of the Sacrifice: Be willing to sacrifice your time and energy to achieve your goals.
- The Law of the Golden Rule: Treat others the way you want to be treated.
- The Law of the Abyss: Expect setbacks and challenges, but never let them defeat you.
- The Law of the Crystallization: Focus on your goals and take action every day.

The Greatest Salesman in the World is more than just a sales book. It is a book about personal development, success, and fulfillment.
