The event has been held every year since 1980, and it has grown into one of the most popular events in Memphis. The event typically takes place in May or June, and it attracts thousands of visitors each year.

The Events of the Wedding of the Waters

The Wedding of the Waters is a three-day event that features a variety of activities. The event begins with a parade, which features floats, marching bands, and other performers. The parade winds its way through the streets of Memphis and ends at the Mississippi River.

Once the parade is over, the main event of the Wedding of the Waters begins. Two barges, one representing the Mississippi River and the other representing the Wolf River, are floated down the river. The barges meet in the middle of the river, and a wedding ceremony is performed. The ceremony is officiated by the mayor of Memphis, and it is followed by a fireworks display.

In addition to the parade and the wedding ceremony, the Wedding of the Waters also features a variety of other activities. These activities include live music, food vendors, and a carnival. The event is a great way to experience the culture of Memphis and to celebrate the joining of two rivers.

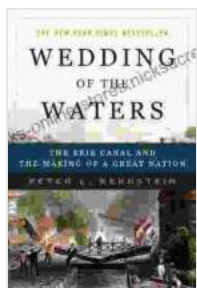

How to Attend the Wedding of the Waters
